

Classic Art Films
& Gallery 2622
Proudly Present:

September 2015

Don't miss the Movie Time film series sponsored by Gallery 2622 which is located in the heart of Wauwatosa, WI. Gallery 2622 is devoted to both emerging and established fine artists working in Wisconsin.

Each film will be presented by the owner of Classic Art Films, Matthew Sheldon. Matthew is a UWM film studies graduate and developed Classic Art Films to bring recognition and appreciation to the fine art of cinema. Learn more about Matthew and find over 100 film essays, director biographies — along with some unique film and movie memorabilia, on his blog at www.classicartfilms.com.

We continue this month with our focus on film noir — emphasizing its themes, the lighting, shadows and the black-and-white cinematography. Our film in September will be Nicholas Ray's In a Lonely Place (1950), starring Humphrey Bogart and Gloria Grahame.

In a Lonely Place stars Academy Award winner Humphrey Bogart as Dixon Steele, a down-on-his-luck studio scribe who reluctantly agrees to adapt a trashy bestseller to the silver screen. Rather than read the book himself, Steele convinces a star-struck hat-check girl to accompany him home and tell him the story in her own words. Later that night, Mildred is found murdered and Steele — who has a history of violent behavior — becomes the prime suspect. Fortunately for him, his sexy neighbor, Laurel Gray (Gloria Grahame) — who is physically attracted to the writer — lies to the police by providing Steele with an air-tight alibi. But is he truly innocent of Mildred's death or is Laurel destined to become the next victim of Steele's violent temper?
